

Graduate Certificate in Data Analytics

The Data Analytics Graduate Certificate is designed for students who would like to acquire the basic knowledge and skills required for data science professionals to boost their marketability. The certificate provides fundamental knowledge in pre-processing, cleaning, exploring and visualizing data and machine learning and predictive analysis as well as storage, management and analysis of big data.

Core courses:

CSC 532	Introduction to Machine Learning	4
---------	----------------------------------	---

Elective Courses ¹		12
--------------------------------------	--	-----------

Total Hours		16
--------------------	--	-----------

¹ 12 hours of Data Analytics with academic advisor's approval